

Labour Market Planning Committee

Diane Dubois

Presently Director of Business and Community Services for Collège Boréal in Central Southwestern Ontario, Diane Dubois is responsible for employability issues, continuing education, apprenticeship and contract training for 5 centers from Windsor to Barrie. Born in Welland, Diane has more than 25 years experience in economic community development at the local, regional and provincial levels within the francophone community.

Diane holds a BSc. in Agriculture from the University of Guelph and lives on a farm with her husband. She has 3 sons.
