Jean-Luc Bernard

Jean-Luc Bernard has over 28 years of experience in education and has a Master's of Education. In April 2002, he became the Director of Education and Secretary-Treasurer for the Conseil scolaire de district du Centre-Sud-Ouest. Jean-Luc has had a very productive career as a teacher, a curriculum consultant and superintendent of schools and special education. He has also worked as an education officer for the Ministry of Education.

His expertise and experience in education have enabled him to sit on several provincial committees on literacy, numeracy, and special education. More specifically, he has been a member and vice-chair of the Minister's Advisory Council on Special Education for over seven years representing Francophone and Anglophone supervisory officers.

Jean-Luc has been involved in multiple educational reforms in Canada. Teacher training based on a reflective thinking approach and dialogue has been at the core of his philosophy and its vision for improved education.
